

Mountain View's Booher wins boys side of Dropping tourney

Chris Booher, who recently graduated from Mountain View High, won the boys championship at the 41st Dropping Invitational at Hillcrest Country Club on Tuesday.

Booher won with a birdie in driving rain on the first hole of a playoff over Spokane's Justin Haase. Booher shot rounds of 74, 72 and 71 for a 217 three-day total.

Tanner Higham (220) of Shelley finished three strokes behind Booher and Haase, and Eagle's Jordan Skyles (221) was one shot behind Higham.

On the girls side, Katrina Hegge of Seattle defended her championship by defeating her nearest competitor by five strokes.

Hegge finished with a 218 three-day total. Ali Thompson (229) of Boise finished third.
